Author's Notes:
A drabble for Ravendark, with love <3

Clothes, spilled ashes, slipping into bed and falling, fucking. But the memory has another quality than the silence of the day. It is a flame of a holy vision and the shudder of seed that makes felt on land.

Now come the nightmares, the intimacy of a whispered walk under the cryptic light of a Nordic moon, the reflection of a candle's flicker in ice.

"James," his eyes locked on mine and in a hoarse voice he whispered, "let me finish you."

I drink in the sight, and for the briefest instant, it feels like we're together again.
